About Us

Enara Law is a respected Arizona-based law firm with a growing litigation practice and a unique opportunity for attorneys experienced in both government and private sector work. Our team values flexibility, strategic thinking, and results. This role is ideal for an attorney who thrives in a fast-paced environment and is ready to pivot between public agency matters and traditional civil litigation. We handle a wide range of matters involving municipalities, regulatory enforcement, and private disputes – offering a dynamic caseload that makes a real impact.

Key Responsibilities

- Manage legal matters involving municipal law, regulatory issues, and administrative compliance
 - Draft pleadings, discovery, legal briefs, and client communications
 - Represent clients in court, depositions, hearings, and public forums
 - Conduct legal research, build case strategies, and manage litigation timelines
 - Collaborate with team members on complex legal issues and case development
 - Navigate public records, government procedures, and private sector litigation dynamics

Qualifications

- Minimum 3 years of legal experience (public sector + private practice preferred)
 - Active license and good standing with the State Bar of Arizona
 - Excellent written and verbal communication skills
 - Strong organizational and case management abilities
 - Proven ability to handle a diverse and evolving caseload

Why Join Enara Law

- Diverse mix of government and private practice work
 - Clear opportunities for leadership and professional growth
 - Collaborative, mentorship-focused team culture
 - Competitive compensation and comprehensive benefits
 - Flexibility and structure to support a sustainable work-life balance
